Date: 21/05/2020

Notification No. 09/2020 (College related work)

To,
All Council Recognized Physiotherapy & Occupational therapy colleges.

COVID 19 outbreak has affected our country. The council office is closed down since lockdown as per the directives from government which affected the council services. The inspections & college related work is pending due to lockdown. This issue was kept in the extraordinary meeting of council on 20/05/2020 & as per decision I am directing all concerned colleges about provisional changes made in relation to college related work.

1. The colleges whose validity of recognition is expired / going to get expired as may be the case in the period from 1st January 2020 to 31st December 2020 has been extended provisionally till 31st December 2020.
2. The same provisional extension is applicable for colleges awaiting for the inspection in year 2020.
3. This shall not be applicable for colleges which have applied for first time recognition.
4. The inspections of colleges shall be conducted after the end of lock down & on receipt of travel advisory from government authorities.
5. The institutes which are due for payment of inspection charges shall pay by RTGS to council office.
6. This notification shall be considered as the only official communication from council in this subject and no further separate letters shall be issued to colleges.
7. All communications to council office shall be done via emails only in lock down period.

All concerned are instructed to take note of it & act accordingly.

President
Dr.Sudeep Kale
